

About Kantorei

Kantorei is a premier choral ensemble comprised of volunteer singers under the direction of Artistic Director Joel M. Rinsema. Kantorei's choral artists have studied at schools with strong music programs across the United States, and many serve as choral music educators, conductors, and teachers. Kantorei frequently performs at major choral conventions across the U.S., has toured around the world, and works with composers and conductors of international renown.

Kantorei has sung under the batons of René Clausen, Simon Carrington, Eric Whitacre, Karen Kennedy, and Anton Armstrong. Kantorei has commissioned and premiered new choral works from renowned composers including Kim André Arnesen, Eric William Barnum, Abbie Betinis, René Clausen, Ola Gjeilo, Joshua Shank, and Eric Whitacre. Naxos released Kantorei's recording—its first to be professionally produced—of works by Kim André Arnesen in 2018. Santa Barbara Music Publishing Inc., publishes the Kantorei Choral series.

Why Advertise?

Kantorei's audiences have been growing, and with the addition of dedicated Marketing staff we're setting our sights ever higher to become more firmly embedded in Denver's cultural fabric. We'd love to have you join us as we continue to build relationships in the Denver metro area and beyond. Our concerts are performed 2-3 times per concert cycle, giving your ad multiple opportunities to be seen by audiences! An overwhelming majority of our audiences call the Denver metro area their home, giving you the chance to promote your business to local prospective customers.
